MISSOULA--

The University Liquid Assets Corporation (ULAC) at the University of Montana in Missoula has announced that 16,000 gallons of beer (1,000 sixteen-gallon kegs) will be available for the Sixth Annual Benefit Kegger on Wednesday, May 18, southwest of Missoula.

The kegger, sponsored by ULAC to raise funds for the UM Library Book Fund; the Missoula County Sheriff's Youth Summer Camp, and KUFM, the public radio station at UM, will begin at 11 a.m. and last until dusk Wednesday. The kegger will be held at the K.O. Rodeo Grounds, located two miles southwest of Highway 93 on Upper Miller Creek Road.

Besides the 1,000 kegs of beer, the kegger will feature music by Bonnie Raitt, Doug Kershaw, "Mission Mountain Wood Band" and "Tarwater."

Admission to the kegger will be $6 a person if tickets are purchased in advance at the Associated Students' Store in the University Center or at Budget Tapes and Records, 3209 Brooks. Tickets may also be purchased for $7 at the UM Field House on Wednesday, May 18, or for $8 at the kegger gate.

Kegger tickets also are on sale in several other communities. Tickets may be purchased at Cactus Records, Bozeman; Tape Deck, Butte; Budget Tapes, Great Falls; the Opera House, Helena, and Sunshine Records, Kalispell.

Because of the minimum age limit of 18, identification will be checked at the kegger site.

ULAC members have asked that persons attending the kegger form car pools. For safety reasons, glass containers will not be filled at the kegger.
